

2014 SOS

SAVE OUR STUFF

IOWA CONSERVATION & PRESERVATION CONSORTIUM

AT UNIVERSITY OF IOWA MAIN LIBRARY JUNE 6, 2014 8:30-4PM

To Register visit www.iowaconserveandpreserve.org

Opening Reception at Pentacrest Museums Thursday June 5, 4:30-6PM

TOPICS & WORKSHOPS

- Keynote Speaker John Doershuk, State Archaeologist, will discuss recent archaeological finds on the University of Iowa Campus.
- Book Repair
- Making Custom Exhibition Supports
- Manuscript Cleaning and Repair
- Mold: Recognizing and Responding to Mold Incidents in Your Collection
- Taxidermy Care and Cleaning
- Thinking Inside the Box: Exquisite and Make-Do Housing for Archival Material

TOURS

Office of the State Archaeologist

John Martin Rare Book Room

Old Capitol Museum

The Iowa Conservation and Preservation Consortium is a grassroots organization dedicated to initiating, encouraging, and enhancing preservation and conservation practices in Iowa's repositories and cultural institutions.

Members $50

Non-Members $60

Students $30

Participants must register in advance to guarantee lunch.

University of Iowa Libraries
Conservation Lab

THE UNIVERSITY OF IOWA
LIBRARIES

Individuals with disabilities are encouraged to attend all University of Iowa-sponsored events. If you are a person with a disability who requires a reasonable accommodation in order to participate in this program, please contact Lucy David in advance at 319-338-0514