

ICPC Preservation Destination Fellowship

The Iowa Conservation and Preservation Consortium (ICPC) is offering two fellowships for members to attend Preservation Destination. This annual event is offered free of charge to ICPC members. Fellowship recipients will receive up to $100 to reimburse travel and accommodation costs.

About ICPC

The Iowa Conservation and Preservation Consortium's mission is to initiate, encourage, and enhance preservation and conservation activities in and among all Iowa repositories and institutions whose collections include a variety of materials such as audio-visuals, microforms, paper-based, and electronically-stored information for the benefit of present and future generations.

Eligibility Requirements:

- ICPC member (individual or institutional)
- Iowa resident who works or volunteers in a museum, historical society, library, archive, genealogical library, government record office, or other institution that preserves the history and culture of Iowa OR student at an Iowa college or university in a relevant discipline (history, museum studies, library science, archival studies, anthropology, etc.) interested in pursuing a career in the aforementioned profession(s)
- Live at least 100 miles from the site of the event.
- Never before attended Preservation Destination

Final Project

Fellowship recipients are required to complete a review of Preservation Destination, to be published on the ICPC website.
