

Scholarship for ICPC Members

The Iowa Conservation and Preservation Consortium (ICPC) is offering two $500 reimbursement scholarships toward the cost of courses at institutions providing continuing education for preservation professionals, such as the International Preservation Studies Center, Northern States Conservation Center, the Midwest Art Conservation Center, or Museum Study.

Requirements

- Applicants must Iowa residents or college students who are working in a museum, historical society, library, archive, genealogical society library, government record office or other institution that preserves the history and culture of Iowa.
- Applicants must be an individual member of the ICPC or from an organization that is an Institutional member with ICPC.
- The recipient must demonstrate that the class taken will be utilized within Iowa.
- The winner is expected to provide either a report or a presentation at ICPC SOS.

Please complete the information in the fields below:

Name:

Mailing Address:

Phone Number:

E-mail Address:

Institutional Affiliation:

Job Title:

Please provide the following information:

Course Title:

Course Location:

Educational Background (attach a resume or CV):

How will this class help you in your job or educational path?

How will your institute benefit from your completion of the class?

If you have question please send them to iowa.conserveandpreserve@gmail.com.

Please submit application material to Elizabeth-Stone@uiowa.edu.